

ACADEMIC ALLIANCE

Advancing the excellence of member libraries through leadership, collaboration, and co-investment.

In an unprecedented collaborative gesture, the deans of the Big Ten Academic Alliance research libraries have committed to intentionally managing their core collections of books and digital assets as one collection to meet the growing needs of faculty, researchers and students on each campus. The BIG Collection is the overarching initiative to advance this commitment.

